

2nd ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL TRIP: PANAMA CITY, PANAMA

Tuesday, April 25 – Saturday, April 29, 2017

Join the International Law Section of the State Bar of Texas for our annual international visit as we explore breathtaking Panama in a unique cross-cultural exchange in international law.

LEGAL TOPICS

- U.S.-Panama Trade Promotion Agreement
- Doing Business in Panama
- Spreading the Rule of Law
- Logistical and Business Benefits of Using Free Trade Zones
- Corporate Responsibility
- Panamanian Judicial Reform

CULTURAL VISITS

- Exclusive Tour of the original and the newly-expanded Panama Canal
- Casco Antiguo: Historic District of Panama City (UNESCO World Heritage Site)
- Colon Free Trade Zone: Second-Largest Free Trade Zone in the World

CLE CREDIT

- CLE credit will be available

REGISTRATION TO FOLLOW!

For more information, contact Michelle Schulz at mschulz@gardere.com or Luis Arandia at LArandia@givensjohnston.com.

The International Law Section is coordinating several aspects of this trip with the U.S. Commercial Service, based in the U.S. Embassy in Panama.