THOMAS H. WILSON SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

Thomas H. Wilson Scholarship Award: A Beacon of Human Rights and Legal Excellence

The State Bar of Texas International Law Section is proud to sponsor the Thomas H. Wilson Scholarship Award, a prestigious accolade that recognizes and supports law students who demonstrate exceptional aptitude in the field of international law and human rights.

Named in honor of the late Thomas H. Wilson, a distinguished member of the Texas legal community, the scholarship celebrates his legacy by encouraging the next generation of lawyers to pursue careers that make a meaningful impact on the global stage.

The scholarship award is presented annually to law students who exhibit outstanding scholarship and dedication to human rights issues. The recipients are chosen based on a written essay they submit on any subject related to international human rights law.

The Thomas H. Wilson Scholarship Award not only honors the memory of a respected legal figure but also serves as a testament to the enduring importance of human rights and the rule of law in our interconnected world. It stands as a beacon, guiding aspiring legal professionals towards a future where justice and human dignity are upheld universally.

Thomas H. Wilson

August 7, 1960 -
October 25, 2022

Tom took great pride in his legal profession, recognizing the impactful difference lawyers can make in the world. His legacy lives on through the lawyers he mentored, the community organizations he helped establish, and his beloved family.

Thank You to Our Sponsor:

Vinson&Elkins LLP

Tom Wilson's Legacy

Tom's impact on the International Law Section was immeasurable. He held the position of ILS Chair from 2018 to 2019 and was instrumental in establishing the Texas Bar's International Human Rights Committee (IHRC) in 2015, serving as its inaugural Chair. Tom also founded the ILS International Newsletter, assuming the role of Editor-in-Chief from 2020 to 2022. Furthermore, he organized various events over recent past years in observance of Human Rights Day on December 10.

A renowned labor and employment lawyer, Tom dedicated his entire career to Vinson & Elkins. Starting as an associate in the Houston office in 1985, he became a partner in 1994. Tom led Vinson & Elkins' Employment, Labor & OSHA group and developed a successful practice in traditional labor and safety law. His expertise extended to international human rights law, where he played a key role in early environmental, social, and governance (ESG) strategy development for clients.

RICHARD MUÑOZ

ILS Chair 2023-2024, Assistant General Counsel and Privacy Officer, Buckner International (Dallas)

Richard's career is focused on public service and advocacy, including projects such as the Immigration Service and Aid Center (ISAAC) to assist undocumented immigrants. He contributed to programs at Buckner International like Family Hope Centers and initiatives for orphans. His leadership in the legal community includes pro bono work to aid low-income Texans and volunteering for human rights and community service.

DEMETRA KOELLING

General Counsel, On2It Cybersecurity (Houston)

Over the past six years while living and working in The Hague, the Netherlands, Demetra took a deep dive into data security and privacy and began work as general counsel to ON2IT, a multi-national Dutch American cybersecurity innovator. ON2IT helps customers face cybersecurity threats to protect critical infrastructure, financial market stability, business continuity and individual privacy.

DAVIS HAKE

Senior Director of Cybersecurity Services, Venable (San Francisco)

Davis is a cybersecurity expert recognized nationally for his experience in the private sector and government. He co-founded Arceo Analytics, a cybersecurity startup, and has been awarded for his innovative contributions to the field. Davis has guided clients through complex cybersecurity challenges, impacting how cybersecurity is managed in the digital world.

CHARLES A. BECKHAM, JR.

Partner, Haynes Boone (Houston)

Charlie has over 30 years of experience in bankruptcy, mergers, acquisitions, debt restructuring, and insolvency. Recognized in 2012 as the "Go-To Lawyer" for bankruptcy in Texas by Texas Lawyer, he has dealt with high-profile energy-related bankruptcies and helped clients navigate complex business failures.

MEET OUR SPEAKERS

Additionally, Ross has been involved in procuring and licensing technologies in collaboration with nanotechnology experts from esteemed institutions like Rice University and the University of Texas at Dallas.

DEBBIE J. MCCOMAS

Partner, Haynes Boone (Dallas)

Debbie has a remarkable track record in patent litigation and appeals. She is recognized as the fourth most active attorney representing appellees and eleventh most active overall in the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. Her legal prowess extends beyond patent law, encompassing a broad spectrum of litigation and appellate practice across the nation, including the State of Texas. Debbie has argued before the Texas Supreme Court, petitioned the United States Supreme Court, and defended foreign sovereigns from multiple continents.

MEET OUR SPEAKERS

33rd Annual International Law Institute

DAY 1

May 16, 2024

JOSHUA NEWCOMER

Principal, McKool Smith (Houston)

Joshua specializes in complex commercial litigation. His areas of focus include financial, fiduciary, construction, and bankruptcy-related disputes. He has represented numerous post-bankruptcy trustees and their counterparties in high-profile cases. He sits on the ILS Council where he serves as the Chair of the International Human Rights Committee and Editor-in-Chief of the section's International Newsletter.

JUDGE DELISSA A. RIDGWAY (LUNCHEON KEYNOTE)

Federal Judge, U.S. Court of International Trade (New York City)

Judge Delissa A. Ridgway, now a Senior Judge, has served on the U.S. Court of International Trade for more than 25 years. The Court - an Article III court based in New York - has exclusive nationwide jurisdiction over actions involving the interpretation and application of the customs and international trade laws of the U.S. Before joining the Court, she served as Chair of the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission of the U.S. ("FCSC"), presiding over a three-member international tribunal charged with adjudicating claims by U.S. nationals against foreign sovereigns. Claims at issue during her tenure involved Iran, Albania, Vietnam, Cuba, and Iraq, as well as Holocaust claims against Germany brought by U.S. survivors of Nazi concentration camps. The Judge began her career at one of Washington, D.C.'s largest firms, specializing in international commercial arbitration. Judge Ridgway will also be a panelist on Day 2.

VANESSA SUAREZ

Associate, Holland & Knight (Austin)

Vanessa is a commercial litigation and international disputes attorney. She focuses her practice on disputes in the energy sector and has significant experience with construction, energy, trade secrets, business torts and various other commercial disputes. Her background includes litigation management and trial experience in state and federal matters.

MEET OUR SPEAKERS

33rd Annual International Law Institute

DAY 1

May 16, 2024

MARISSA SANDOVAL RODRIGUEZ

Partner, Cacheaux, Cavazos & Newton (McAllen)

Being on the border, Marissa understands the value of the relationship between the US and Mexico and the importance of cross-border business. For over 17 years, she has represented clients from the US and Mexico on domestic and international matters, including corporate, mergers and acquisitions, real estate, contractual, estate planning, and probate matters.

FRANCISCO PEÑA

Partner, Cacheaux, Cavazos & Newton (McAllen)

Francisco represents foreign investors with a focus on cross-border operations between the US, Mexico, and other Latin American countries in environmental matters, compliance, mergers & acquisitions, labor and employment litigation, health and safety, government relations, and contractual areas. He has extensive experience in negotiating collective bargaining agreements with unions before the Mexican labor authorities, as well as in representing companies in their compliance obligations before the different agencies and government offices in Mexico.

MICHELLE SCHULZ

Founder/Managing Partner, Schulz Trade Law (Dallas)

Michelle is a nationally recognized leader in her field, serving as an outside advisor to the U.S. Secretary of Commerce and the U.S. Trade Representative on the Industry Trade Advisory Committee for Aerospace (ITAC-1) where she holds a secret level security clearance. She routinely advocates for exporters and importers in federal investigations, fines and penalties, audits disclosures, export licensing and international trade.

LINDSAY FORBES

Senior Associate Attorney, Schulz Trade Law (Dallas)
